

EQUAL

RIGHTS

HERITAGE CENTER

Shining a light on Auburn, NY

NYS EQUAL RIGHTS HERITAGE CENTER
25 South Street
Auburn, NY 13021
(315) 258-9820

Located in downtown Auburn adjacent to the Seward House Museum.

Welcome to Auburn.

Immerse yourself in the historical narratives that are unique to the NYS Equal Rights Heritage Center, a collection of exhibits that highlight the history of the equal rights movement. Perfect for families or students, our facility offers an experience where guests can engage with history, while enjoying the flavor of our community.

Enjoy our interactive and educational displays.

Taste regionally sourced products in our Taste NY Market.

Relax in the courtyard carefully watched over by our famous statue of Harriet Tubman.

Learn about the egalitarian history that makes Auburn the incredible city it is today.

©NYSDED

equalrightsheritage.com

@equalrightsheritage

@equalrightsheritage

